OF

EB Docket No. 06-36

TO: FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION, ENFORCEMENT BUREAU

In response to the Commission's Public Notice, DA 06-223 (released January 30, 2006), and revised by Public Notice, DA 06-258 (released February 2, 2006), Farmers Telecommunications Corporation ("Farmers LD") states as follows:

1. Farmers LD is an affiliate of Farmers Telecommunications Cooperative, Inc., a small rural local exchange carrier. Farmers LD provides service to less than thirteen thousand five hundred (13,500) long distance customers. Farmers LD ensured that it was in compliance with the FCC rules contained in the subpart addressing Customer Proprietary Network Information ("CPNI") for 2005 in that Farmers LD did not use CPNI in its marketing efforts in 2005 nor did it turn over CPNI to others in 2005.
2. Because Farmers LD was not using CPNI in its marketing efforts and did not turn over CPNI to others, Farmers LD certifies that it complied with the Commission's rules regarding the proper use of CPNI.
3. Farmers LD's interpretation of 47 C.F.R. § 64.2009, entitled "Safeguards required for use of customer proprietary network information" was that so long as CPNI was not used by telecommunications carriers, the compliance certificate requested by the Enforcement Bureau in Public Notice DA 06-223, and revised by Public Notice, DA 06-258, was not required. Specifically, that Section provides, among other things, that a carrier "must implement a system...prior to the use of CPNI..." 47 C.F.R. § 64.2009(a). For that reason, Farmers does not have a compliance certificate for the year 2005.
4. Farmers will immediately adopt an appropriate 2006 compliance certificate in the event that CPNI is later used.
